Author Bio:

Don Redden Ph.D. is a Vietnam veteran and a retired agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Prior to his career with the FBI, Don served with the Kentucky National Guard and U.S. Army during the Vietnam War, and was a recipient of the Bronze Star for meritorious service in a combat zone. While working for the FBI, Don played a critical role in the apprehension of many of Kentucky's most wanted criminals. His outstanding leadership and capable investigative efforts were recognized by many including then FBI Director, John Edgar Hoover.

COMMITMENT TO COURAGE

THE LIFE AND EXTRAORDINARY CAREER OF A VETERAN FBI AGENT

DONALD L. REDDEN, PH.D.

After serving a tour of duty in Vietnam, a chance encounter with an FBI agent kicked off the adventure of a lifetime. Commitment to Courage chronicles Dr. Don Redden's 25 year career in the FBI and details five of his biggest cases.

Synopsis:

As a young man, Don Redden didn't have big plans for his future beyond raising a family, a good career at General Electric, and making it through the Vietnam War alive. His plan was simple, honest, and safe. When Don's tour of duty in the Army was over and he got home alive, it looked like he was on track to achieve everything he had set out to do.

A chance encounter with an FBI agent led him to make a momentous decision and abandon the safe path he had set for himself. He would apply to join the FBI. This began the adventure of a lifetime. From bank robberies to kidnappings to murder, Don did what he had to, sometimes against protocol and sometimes against instinct, to protect those he could and bring justice for those he couldn't.

*Praise for Commitment to Courage

Don and I have been friends ever since he rescued me from a kidnapping attempt. Don never wanted to be a superstar agent. He was never a "cowboy" or "superhero." The hallmark of Don's career was doing his job simply and with excellence. In many ways, he did what had to be done, whether serving a subpoena on a witness, chasing down a thief, solving a string of bank robberies, or saving my life.
